Business Ends First Quarter on the Upbeat

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — Business ends the first quarter today on the upbeat. And the tempo is due to become even faster. It is now the longest sustained upswing in peacetime.

And many millions of Americans are sharing the prosperity. Statistics on the first three months' behavior will trickle in slowly in coming weeks. But already there is evidence aplenty to tag this first quarter as one of the best, with the economy at a peak.

Many of the usual winter slowdowns in some industries didn't happen, or if they did the decline was so uncommonly moderate as to fall short of affecting the general upturn.

The quarter had been billed to register a pause while business was gathering fresh wind for a big blow-off in the spring months. The results, however, have exceeded most expectations.

Predictions for the second quarter are being revised—upward.

There are some modest differences of opinion as to what is the real force behind the first quarter's performance. Some hold that much of the upturn is due to the general momentum of an economic upturn that started when the last recession hit bottom in February 1961 and with a few periods of hesitation has climbed impressively since. Aging booms often look their best just before

Malvern and Hope in Clean Up Contest

Plans have been formulated for an inter-city Clean-up, Paint-up, and Beautify Campaign involving Hope and Malvern. They have challenged each other to see who can do the best job of beautifying their town between April 13 and May 2.

Radio Stations KBOK and KXAR will provide a handsome trophy that will go to the winning city to be displayed in their Chamber of Commerce office. A system of judging has been set up offering points for painting up, cleaning up, fixing up, and planting or landscaping.

The State Chamber of Commerce has agreed to serve as the final judge and inspect those places where improvements have been made. After the decision is announced, the losing town will play host to the winning town, serving the Committee and local winners an Arkansas Chicken or Beef Barbecue.

Local citizens will be asked to secure entry blanks at their Chamber office and enter prior to April 13. A local team will pre-inspect before the work starts and return again when the project is complete.

Hope and Malvern are very near the same size in population and land area. They are both in the same school conference and the friendly rivalry is expected to be spirited as each town tries to out-do the other in making their town more attractive. KBOK and KXAR plan to issue daily reports as soon as point totals are turned in to the respective Chambers.

I. J. Steed of the State Chamber of Commerce says he hopes the idea might be used by other towns. There will be local prizes offered in various divisions of each city. Hope will award winners in each ward a $10.00 first prize and $5.00 for second. A sweepstakes trophy will be awarded to the person doing the best overall job during the contest.

One of the Finest Safaris in This Life Is a Trip Back Through Your Memory

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Nobody knows what the future may offer, but we all are consoled by what the past has brought.

One of the best safaris in life is a trip back through memory. You can pick the time and weather for your journey and find good companions. The cost is usually less than a tear and often no more than a smile.

But you've come quite a distance along this world's roadways if you can look back and remember when—

Every girl in America dreamed of dancing with the Prince of Wales or riding off on a white horse into the desert with Rudolph Valentino.

An ambitious lad could always get into the circus free by helping water the elephants. Anybody caught reading a copy of "The American Mercury" magazine was suspected of being an intellectual—and maybe immoral to boot.

Many a hard-up family helped cut down its fuel bill by sending the kids with gunny sacks down to the railroad yards to pick up fallen coal.

The nation was divided into two classes—those who thought Mary Pickford should have kept her long curls, and those who thought she looked every bit as pretty with her hair bobbed.

If the dish didn't have gravy on it, you didn't think you were getting much of a meal. Everybody would run out on the sidewalk and look up when an airplane flew by.

When the doctor raised his price for a home call to $3, half the people in town asked the other half, "What's the world coming to next?"

Boys always had holes in their long black stockings from kneeling to play marbles.

Saloons had two entrances—one for "Ladies"—and if you asked a bartender for a martini he thought you were either kidding him or trying to show off. Your favorite uncle was the one who could take a deep puff on his cigarette, swallow a glass of water—and then blow smoke out his nose.

The business leaders in a small town always went home for lunch. And if you had a roll-top desk of your own in your office, you were making your mark in the world.

Someone who got a suit with only one pair of pants to it was put down as a spendthrift.

Washington Plans Tea to Open Season

Pioneer Washington Restoration Foundation will open its 1964 tourist season with a Spring Symphony Silver Tea on Sunday, April 5, from 2 to 5 p.m.

The Foundation Board, and Mrs. Charles A. Haynes, executive secretary, extend an invitation to Washington's many friends and former residents to attend this gala opening.

All places of historical significance will be shown. In addition, a Pioneer Law Office, located on Main Street, will be open to the public for the first time. In this authentic and attractive little building may be seen the legal library of Elter and Monroe, Washington's last law firm, containing many volumes belonging to the pioneer lawyers of early Hempstead County.

Hostesses in period costumes will greet visitors at each place and the Silver Tea will be held in the handsomely furnished Black-Catts House. Flowering shrubs and spring flowers in yards will add color to the occasion.

Garland 2nd Gives Spring Fantasy

Under the direction of Mrs. Earl Thomason, teacher, the second grade of Garland School entertained their parents and the entire student body Thursday, March 26, with a musical play "King March Welcomes Queen Spring."

Ronnie Wreyford announced the members of the cast as follows: King March, Brad Westbrook, Queen Spring, Peggy Fuller, Neddy North Wind, Teddy Price, Freddy Frost, Steve Allen.

Budy Sleet, Rusty Pendergraft, Sammy South Wind, Tony Stevenson, Mr. Sun, Tim Gunter, Gertrude Green Grass, Ann Smith, Pussy Willow, Paul Bain, Mother Earth, Janice Gilvey, Rain, Chuck Key, Crocus, Jeanie Spicer, Jonquil, Cathy Nell McCorkle, Jack-in-the-pulpit, Bud McLarty, Lily, Kathy Ann Walker.

Tulips, Glenda Buckley, Tina Martin, Barbara Whitley, Leigh Forrester, Violet, Kay Adams, Trailing Arbutus, David Huddleston, Dandelion, Missy Warren, Peter Cottontail, Kevin Ward, and Egbert, the Easter Egg, Randy Hollis.

The entire second grade made up the chorus and sang "Peter Cottontail," "Bunny, Bunny," and "Egbert, the Easter Egg."

Arkla Revenue Shows Increase

SHREVEPORT, La. (AP) — The Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co. told its stockholders Monday that operating revenue and sales reached a record $146,584,799 during 1963.

This was an increase of eight per cent from 1962, the annual Arkla report said.

W. R. Stephens, president and board chairman, told stockholders that 58 per cent of the net income was attributable to "non-utility operations of the company and to manufacturing operations of the subsidiaries, especially cement, chemicals and air conditioning."

The report also said Arkla now serves 515,805 customers, more than double the number 10 years ago.

Fruit Losses Staggering in Deep South

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—Sub-freezing temperatures over the Southeast spread into north-central Florida early today, adding vegetable crop damage to the loss suffered by peach growers in other states.

Twenty-seven degree cold killed some beans, corn, cucumbers and watermelon in sections around Gainesville, Ocala and Zellwood, Fla.

Georgia's main peach-producing area appeared to have survived major damage in the second straight day of below freezing weather. The Fort Valley section, where nearly 70 per cent of the state's $12 million peach crop is grown, reported some damage in 26-degree weather but growers said they still expected to have a good crop.

A cloud cover lessened the effects of the cold in south Georgia and there appeared to be little damage to tobacco and tomato plants.

Severe damage to peaches resulted in north Georgia in the cold blast that hit early Monday, and North and South Carolina orchards suffered heavily.

In Spartanburg County, where nearly half of South Carolina's $20 million peach crop is grown, more than 90 per cent of the fruit was reported destroyed.

Spring crops were wiped out or destroyed in record-breaking cold in North Carolina where lows ranged from the teens to

County Farm Agent

By CALVIN J. CALDWELL

Farm Bureau Meeting
The regular meeting of the Hempstead County Farm Bureau will be Thursday night, April 2, at 7:30, at 806 W. 4th Street.

Ruel Nester, Agronomist with the Cooperative Extension Service from Little Rock, will be guest speaker. He will discuss variety characteristics, cultural practices, weed control and other factors influencing soybean production.

Soybean acreage is increasing in the county each year and we hope farmers will take advantage of the chance to hear this specialist discuss the many aspects of soybean production. You don't have to be a Farm Bureau member to attend the meeting.

Pecan Phylloxera

One of the most common insects attacking the pecan is a small aphid-like insect which feeds on young leaves, shoots and nuts. The plant forms galls around these insects. These insects appear on the twigs in the spring about the time the bud unfolds. Damage is noted later. To control Phylloxera use BHC 12% 2 1/2 lbs. per 100 gallons of water as the buds begin to swell. Spray again when leaves are half grown.

Dogs Vaccinated

There were 454 dogs vaccinated against rabies during the county-wide vaccination program. This is less than the normal number vaccinated each year.

New Oat Variety
Ora, a new oat variety, is approved for release. Dr. R. L. Thurman, Professor of Agronomy and Dr. John Paul Jones, Associate Professor of Plant Pathology, University of Arkansas worked together in developing this variety.

Ora has short straw, large seed and is more resistant than some other recommended varieties.

South to Have Say When the Time Comes

By JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (AP) — The leader of the Southern senators battling the civil rights bill served notice today they have no intention of letting the other side "call the tune" in the debate.

Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga. said that Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., floor manager of the bill, "seems to feel he not only can call the tune but do all the dancing."

Russell and other Southerners protested in the Senate that Humphrey, in making a lengthy speech Monday in support of the bill, had refused to yield to them for any questions and enter into a debate.

They also chided Humphrey and his side for saying they had agreed to let the Dixie forces take the floor today instead of pushing ahead, as previously announced, with speeches laying down their case for the bill.

"If the advocates of the bill have broken down temporarily, I believe the record should show it," said Sen. Spessard L. Holland, D-Fla.

Humphrey replied he deeply regretted that the bill's opponents "think it is our manifest duty to continue to explain the bill."

"We're ready to vote on the bill right now," Humphrey said. "We laid down the case for the bill yesterday," he added, noting he and Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel, R-Calif., had made speeches explaining the measure section by section.

Blue Cross in Drive for Members

Sam M. Butler, Executive Director of Arkansas Blue Cross and Blue Shield announced that the annual spring membership drive takes place during April this year. Butler said, "Age restrictions will be removed during this enrollment period. Arkansans of all ages may join Blue Cross-Blue Shield during April. New employed groups may join during this time, too."

Nothing that hospital-surgical costs have risen to an all time high, Butler stated. "Budgeting the cost of health care is one of the most important things a person can do. Statistically, one family out of every two will pay a hospital bill this year. Some of these will run into the thousands of dollars. That is why we urge every Arkansan to investigate membership in Blue Cross-Blue Shield "Easy Joining Days".

Butler stated that the Arkansas plan would launch an active campaign through state newspapers to inform people of this enrollment period.

Blue Cross-Blue Shield is the nation's oldest plan for prepayment of health care costs. The Arkansas Plan has operated for 15 years and has more than 300,000 members in the state.

Khrushchev in Hungary for Talk on China

By JOHN O. KOEHLER

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP)—Soviet Premier Khrushchev was welcomed warmly today on his arrival for talks with Hungarian Communist leaders that may lead to a showdown with Red China.

Against the backdrop of a Peking call for world communism to repudiate the Soviet premier's leadership, Hungarian Premier Janos Kadar predicted Khrushchev's visit will "improve the unity of the Socialist camp."

Informed sources report the Hungarian Communist party has voted formally to support Moscow in any split with Peking.

Khrushchev's reply was formal and noncommittal. "Our visit not only will be a cordial get-together of friends but a continuation of the extraordinary talks during the Soviet Union of the Hungarian party and government delegation last summer," he said.

Brazil Plan Leans Toward Communism

By FRANK BRUTTO

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP) — President Joao Goulart warned opponents Monday night he will not modify his reform program and charged that foreign money is helping finance the campaign against him.

The leftist president spoke out in a nationwide television address which followed criticism of his decision, later reversed, not to punish mutinous sailors who joined in a Communist-inspired passive rebellion.

"There is no force capable of turning us aside from our program," Goulart said amid a deepening crisis of economic and political troubles, runaway inflation, labor unrest and increasing Communist influence.

The social and constitutional reforms Goulart vowed to push through Congress would facilitate land reform, give the vote to 20 million illiterate Brazilians, clear the way for legalization of the outlawed Communist party and broaden presidential powers.

Goulart, who has enlisted leftists, nationalists and Communists in his reform campaign, claimed propaganda against him is "financed by illicit remittances by big foreign companies."

He said money for his foes also is coming from foreign drug manufacturers and international petroleum companies, dishonest merchants, usurious landlords and big landowners.

Attacking a Roman Catholic campaign against communism, and his government, Goulart declared: "I will not permit that the religion of my parents and my family to be used as a political instrument."

The church has called for a public march in Rio Thursday. A similar demonstration in Sao Paulo March 19 brought more than 500,000 Catholics into the streets, singing and praying in what a leader called defense of democratic institutions.

Goulart's conservative opponents accuse him of trying to set up a dictatorship and working out constitutional changes so that he can run in the presidential election in October 1965. Goulart charges his foes with plotting to overthrow him.

Goulart's speech came on the same day the U.S. State Department in Washington said he has allowed Communists to make significant gains, that his government has moved closer to the Communist bloc in trade and diplomacy, and that the over-all situation in Brazil has steadily deteriorated.

DOROTHY DIX

CO-ED, IN LOVE, SAYS
SHE LEADS OWN LIFE
By DR. JOYCE BROTHERS

Dear Dr. Brothers: My daughter and I have been discussing the pronouncement by the president of Vassar that premarital relations are forbidden on or off campus. My daughter, who attends college here in the city, feels that a college girl's sex life is "her own business."

She told me and her father that her best friend, a girl from a very fine family, and who's made the dean's list, is having premarital relations with the boy she loves.

My daughter declared she saw nothing wrong with this, and that she envied her best friend, because this girl has so much. My husband and I are terribly upset, but we don't know what to say to her. Am I, as my daughter says, old-fashioned? — Mrs. Z.

Dear Mrs. Z: Your daughter is really taking a very old-fashioned viewpoint. It goes back in history as far as yours does. She feels that two people who are in love should give themselves what they want when they want it. And your attitude is based partly on the feeling that an inability to wait is an immature characteristic.

The capacity for delaying immediate pleasure for greater pleasure in the future is a sign of emotional stability, and of intelligence.

Why wait? Civilized life comprised a great deal of waiting. We wait for vacations, we wait to eat at mealtime, we wait until we're certain we can afford an item.

Often the waiting seems tiresome, even pointless. However, people still wait, and the reason is that by waiting, they have a better chance for obtaining happiness.

Your daughter's best friend appears happy at the moment. The question is, is it worth the heartache that may follow?

In some of the Scandinavian countries the attitude toward premarital relations is much more liberal than it is here, but observers do not return with tales of a happy, fulfilled female populace. On the contrary, the suicide and insanity rates are above our own.

Despite the opinions of those who argue for premarital relations, the psychological fact is that in today's society, there is almost always a psychological feeling of guilt afterward. You might ask your daughter if a girl's sex life is her own business, why has this girl discussed her conduct with her young man she loves with her girl friends?

You might point out the possibility to your daughter that behind her friend's bragging and exhibitionism may be deep fears about what society thinks about her actions. Often when a couple in love decides not to wait, both partners feel that they have not been good to themselves and to each other. The boy feels that as the protector and defender he should have been strong enough to protect the girl, not only from his own, but from her desires. The girl worries about what the boy will think of her, once she's given in.

When a young man really loves a girl, the tendency is for him to want to wait until marriage. He does not want to expose her to criticism.

An interesting survey of college students was conducted by Dr. Winston Ehrman. He found that 56 per cent of the men interviewed had premarital sexual relations with acquaintances, 60 per cent with girl friends, and only 24 per cent with the women they loved. When the college man finds his feelings for a woman go beyond passion and friendship, but encompass the wish to love, give, and protect, he discovers that the role he wants to take, and the role he wants her to take is the conventional one. He wants to postpone immediate pleasure. He's willing not to take what he desires at the instant he desires it.

By "BILL"

I know everyone had to rejoice Easter Sunday. The day was pleasant; the anxieties and fears, the realities of death and taxes, the threat of rain, the stress of life for those who have too little or too much, were all laid aside and the crowning triumph of Holy Week ended with the Easter Church Services.

Little, big, young and old, regulars and irregulars marched to services, and it was a sight to behold. For people who were unable to be out, here was radio and TV, and the "peace that passeth all understanding" was offered to everyone alike. Easter is the one time when degrees of Christianity are not questioned; all are gathered into the fold. It was truly a great Day!

And of course we have the aftermath, just as we do from any other great occasion. You can bet everybody will be eating eggs in some form this week! The menu will consist of egg salad, eggs-a-la-king, egg consommé, chopped, fried, boiled, baked; you name it, and somebody will come up with the egg! One thing for sure, there will be no "hunting" of eggs; they will be right there before you, to say nothing of all those chocolate bunnies.

Anyway, now that we are all through with Easter, we are busy rearranging our stock at Ray's Style Shoppe, making room for summer cottons. We are having a clearance sale on many garments; they are selected from regular stock, all placed on racks for easy selection. They range in price from high to low; all are excellent bargains, all sizes and types. It will be fun to browse through, come early, we will be looking for you at Ray's Style Shoppe 522 West 3rd Street.

World News

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP) — A Lebanese Protestant minister and two Syrians convicted of spying for Israel were hanged in Damascus today and their bodies left dangling for hours, while thousands looked on.

The churchman, Jamil El Karh, was convicted Monday night of running a spy ring in connection with his church mission. His two leading aides, Jamil Haddad and Yusuf Laktineh, were hanged with him.

The tribunal sentenced seven fugitive defendants to death in absentia. The wife of the minister was given 15 years hard labor.

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — A South Vietnamese Ranger battalion killed 32 Viet Cong guerrillas Monday in a three-hour battle 30 miles north of Saigon, U.S. military sources said.

Ranger losses were placed at 7 killed and 31 wounded.

ATHENS, Greece (AP) — Keeping a campaign promise, Premier George Papandreu says his government will free the 400 Communists still in prison because of the 1947-49 revolution.

Papandreu's Center Union party holds 160 of the 300 seats in Parliament and he was virtually certain to win approval for his amnesty bill.

Among those to be set free is Tony Ambatielos, whose British-born wife's efforts to win his release embarrassed Queen Frederika on a visit to London and helped bring down the government of Premier Constantine Carmanalis.

etteville and the groom is a graduate student at the University of Arkansas.

Suits Filed on Vapors Night Spot

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Two suits were filed against operators of the Vapors Supper Club Monday, seeking $255,785 in damages for two persons injured in a dynamite blast at the club Jan. 4, 1963.

Former Gov. Sid McMath, an attorney, filed the suits for Mrs. Beverly Longinotti and Robert Charles Fry, administrator of the estate of the late Jack Fry.

The Fry suit asks $170,000 and the Longinotti suit $85,785 from Parks Realty Co., identified in the suits as the operator of the Vapors.

Both suits allege the defendant company was negligent in failing to have the property under continual guard while the injured persons were attending a school for dice and card dealers and croupiers at the Vapors.

An explosion damaged the club extensively and injured 13 persons.

Fry died later and the suit contends his death was a direct result of the injuries. Mrs. Longinotti's suit alleges that she lost the use of her left arm. The defendant "knew, or should have known, that threats had been made that the Vapors would be dynamited," the suits state.

The dynamiting has not been solved.

Casinos at the Vapors and other Hot Springs clubs were closed Saturday night on orders of Hot Springs police. Gov. Orval E. Faubus told local authorities to close the casinos or he would have them closed.

EASY JOINING DAYS

WHILE YOU READ THIS AD 100 SICK OR DISABLED WILL BE TAKEN TO THE HOSPITAL . . .

In the glitter of that stare Belita kind of shivered. "It's all so mixed up! This is the Weeping Widow, you know." She sighed. "You've done a lot for me and it's been hard to live with, knowing how ungrateful I must seem, selling half of what you gave me to that awful Mr. Jones."

She dropped her eyes and Medders shuffled his feet. "You had your reasons, I reckon."

She said, color piling into her cheeks: "It was a pretty sneaky thing I did, pretending to be lost and letting you find me... acting like I was out of my head."

Charlie shrugged. She looked so tore up and humble he told her magnanimously, "No skin lost. Comin' right down to cases I ain't so lily white myself if it comes to that."

She plunged into her story. Her mother had been a great Spanish beauty, daughter of an old and socially prominent family which had been living for years on inherited wealth. Belita's father, a transplanted American of considerable dash and charm, one gathered, was believed to have been in the Santa Fe trade, though she was frank to admit certain jealous competitors had spread unproved rumors connecting his wagons with the transport of contraband.

After the death of her mother in a hunting accident, Belita, aged five, had been taken

Wilkins Sends Hawks Into Pro Cage Playoff

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Little Len Wilkins caught the Los Angeles Lakers looking the wrong way as he boosted the St. Louis Hawks into the final playoff of the National Basketball Association's Western Division.

The Lakers had their eyes on Bob Pettit, Cliff Hagan and Richie Guerin, the top point-makers for the Hawks. But Wilkins, the smallest man on the court at 6-foot-1 inch, knifed in-and-out among the Giants for 30 points that led to a 121-108 victory Monday night.

The Hawks now travel to San Francisco Wednesday for the opener of a best-of-seven series against the division-champion Warriors.

Cincinnati and Boston clash tonight in Boston in the first game of the Eastern Division final playoff.

Pettit didn't have a bad night as he hit 23 points and nabbed 20 rebounds. Hagan notched 29 markers and Guerin 19. But Wilkins was the man of the hour.

The Hawks surged from a 56-56 halftime deadlock to a 72-63 spread that grew to 12 at the start of the final period. The Lakers never came close again. Elgin Baylor paced the Lakers with 28 points, but it took him 32 shots to hit his 11

Titleholders Tournament

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — The entry list for the 25th annual Titleholders Golf Tournament Murie Lindstrom, Beth Stone and Andrea Cohn were the latest women golfers to sign up Monday for the silver anniversary event. Barbara Romack, Polly Riley and Mrs. T. Richard Garlington Jr. filed their entries Saturday.

Defending champion Marilyn Smith and last year's runner-up, Mickey Wright, were among the earliest entries.

Stanley Cup Playoffs Shift Site

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Stanley Cup playoffs shift to Toronto and Detroit tonight and the homecoming Maple Leafs and Red Wings plan to take full advantage of the change in scenery.

The Leafs entertain Montreal and Chicago visits the Wings in third games of their respective best-of-seven series. Both sets are even at a victory apiece but the home-ice advantage has given underdogs Toronto and Detroit an opportunity to take charge.

Thursday night's fourth games also will be played at the Leafs' and Wings' rinks. Chicago hasn't won in its last 11 starts at Detroit. Toronto won four of seven home games against Montreal during the season.

Neither the Leafs nor Wings can afford the slightest letdown, however.

Frank Mahovlich will have to continue his playoff surge and ageless Johnny Bower his goal-tending heroics if Toronto is to eliminate Montreal, the regular season champion.

Mahovlich assisted on one goal and scored the other last Saturday as the Leafs nipped the Canadiens 2-1 at Montreal and squared the series. Bower, believed to be anywhere from 39 to 42 years old, handled 22 of 23 shots.

Robertson Unanimous Selection

NEW YORK (AP) — Oscar Robertson, who leads his Cincinnati teammates against Boston tonight in the NBA Eastern Division playoffs, heads a familiar-looking band of league all-stars for 1964.

The team, selected by the vote of sports writers in the NBA cities and announced Monday, has four holdovers from the 1963 team and is composed of the same five men who made up the 1962 squad.

Robertson, the only unanimous selection, is joined on the first team by Wilt Chamberlain of San Francisco, Bob Pettit of St. Louis and Elgin Baylor and Jerry West of Los Angeles.

Only Chamberlain failed to make the first team last year.

The second team is composed of three Boston Celtics — Bill Russell, Tom Heinsohn and John Havlicek — along with Jerry Lucas of Cincinnati and Hal Greer of Philadelphia.

Pettit made the first team for the 10th consecutive year, equaling the league record for selections held by the now retired Bob Cousy of Boston. It was the sixth first-team berth for Baylor, the fourth for both Chamberlain and Robertson and the third for West.

Players named to the first team get a $200 bonus and those on the second squad $100.

Fortunes of Detroit May Rest on Lary

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer

In the camp of the Detroit Tigers there is an acute awareness that the team's fortunes may rest heavily on the comeback of pitcher Frank Lary, the famed Yankee-slayer who finally blunted his sword against the perennial American League champions.

And, with every outing, Lary seems to be regaining the sharp, crisp form that made him a 23-game winner in 1961.

The veteran right-hander, who will be 33 before the season opens, pitched six strong innings Monday and lowered his earned run average to an eye-opening 1.89 by allowing only two hits and one run as the Tigers whipped Cincinnati 6-3 in an exhibition game.

Lary now has worked more innings in spring training than any other Tiger pitcher and the word from Manager Chuck Dressen is:

"From what I can see so far there is nothing wrong with him."

Lary, meanwhile, remains cautious.

"The arm seems all right," he said recently. "Sure, I wish I could forget the last two years but a lot of guys have run into the same problem. This is something I have to work out for myself."

While Lary was turning in a strong performance, Gary Peters of the Chicago White Sox came through with his best effort of the spring. Peters, American League Rookie of the Year in 1963, pitched one-hit ball in his six-inning workout as the White Sox defeated St. Louis 2-1. Elsewhere, three games were decided in extra-innings. Ty Cline's 10th inning triple with two men on carried Milwaukee to a 4-1 victory over Kansas City. Willie Davis doubled home the clincher in the 12th as the Los Angeles Dodgers edged the New York Mets 7-6 and Baltimore struck for nine runs in the 10th and walloped Washington 14-5.

In other games, Jim Hart hit a three-run homer in San Francisco's 10-2 walloping of Cleveland, rookie Tony Horton hit a ninth inning homer for Boston's 8-7 edge over the Chicago Cubs, Jimmie Hall and Earl Battey homered in Minnesota's 7-3 triumph over Pittsburgh and the New York Yankees defeated Philadelphia 4-2 with Pedro Gonzalez collecting a homer.

Houston's Colts shut out Oklahoma City of the Pacific Coast League 5-0 in a game called after six innings because of cold and Detroit edged Cincinnati 4-3 in a B team game.

Hawkins Gains a Decision

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Dwight Hawkins, of Los Angeles, scored a unanimous 10-round decision over Sid Obart of San Diego, Monday night in Santa Monica Civic Auditorium. Hawkins weighed 122 pounds, Obart 126.

The veteran Hawkins, 26, clubbed left hook after hook to the midsection of 22-year-old Obart.

Coaches Arrive to Handle a 'Dream Team'

NEW YORK (AP) — Four prominent college basketball coaches come to town today to handle the kind of teams every ing to do is extend her Florida vacation through the weekend. She had planned to go home Wednesday.

Vacationing with her daughter, 11, Mrs. Jones said she bet Hy Jeep, $32.80, in the fifth race because "I have a younger brother with the nickname 'Jeep'." She chose Challenge Ship, $13.60, in the sixth because "I entered the real estate business in October and it was a real challenge."

She bet March Blow, $24.80, in the eighth because "my birthday was yesterday, March 29, and it's cold at home," and won on Romoquill, $15.20, in the ninth on the theory "my daughter is studying Roman history in school."

The largest payoff in history — $84,114.20 — went to two Miami Beach cooks on March 5. Just 11 days ago three Canadians won $77,040.60 at Gulfstream on the twin double.

The NCAA squads have coach, dreams about — each with the frustrating knowledge that he can't win.

The coaches are John Wooden of UCLA's national champion team; Amory (Siata) Gill, who is retiring as Oregon State coach; Jack Gardner of Utah, and John McLendon of Kentucky State.

They'll direct the four all-star college teams — three from the National Collegiate A.A. and one from the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics — in the Olympic tryouts on the St. John's University court Thursday. Other teams in the three-day session are two all-star squads picked from last week's Amateur Athletic Union championships and two from the Armed Forces.

The college squads include most of the past season's All-America and Little All-America selections, six members of the UCLA squad and the tallest and most-talented college players from every sector. The NAIA squad represents smaller colleges, but physically its just as big as any of the others.

The college teams will be playing under unfamiliar rules, which probably won't handicap them much. The big differences are the angled foul lanes, spreading 19 feet at the end line, and the international ball, which is a little heavier and harder to control than the American ball.

The NCAA squads have

Player Feels He Has Chance

ATLANTA (AP) — Gary Player, only foreign entry ever to win the Masters Golf Tournament, feels he has a good chance to win again this year.

"I think I have a pretty good chance at Augusta," said the South African Monday. "I've always played well at the National Golf Course. To win the Masters, you are going to have to beat people like Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus."

Player, whose Masters victory came in 1961, has won one tournament this year on the PGA tour and is one of the top money winners so far. "I feel like I'm playing well," he said.

played a couple of exhibitions during the past week, but there'll be little time for practice as units under the different conditions.

So why can't anyone win? Well, when the three-day session is over, the U.S. Olympic Basketball Committee and Hank Iba of Oklahoma State, the Olympic coach, can pick just 18 men from the whole group. The final Olympic squad will consist of 12 regulars and six alternates and team results won't mean much in the selections.

The program calls for each team to play three times.

leaders of the bipartisan coalition that has been organized in an effort to overcome the opposition of the Dixie forces.

Russell jibed that Humphrey had spoken for three or four hours without permitting any questions by opponents, and "wants to vote" now that he has made his speech.

Holland called it "a complete breakdown of the lumbering cart of the so-called debate by the advocates of this bill," Sen. Allen J. Ellender, D-La., said. Ellender had headlined they were going to make their case to the people but now aren't ready.

Humphrey and Kuchel, the assistant Democratic and Republican leaders, are heading a bipartisan drive aimed at overcoming the opposition of the Dixie forces.

Humphries said the Southerners asked to be heard today. He said proponents were agreeable to this arrangement but nonetheless intend to use up most of this week presenting their case for the bill.

At a luncheon meeting of Republican senators, GOP leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois planned to discuss amendments he intends to propose to the bill's fair employment practices section.

He said that before he can support this part of the bill, as many as a dozen amendments may be necessary. Dirksen also has called for changes in other sections of the measure.

Before the Senate voted last Thursday to take up the bill, most of the speakmaking was by Southern senators who have vowed to wage an all-out fight.

Humphrey, who held the floor for three hours and 25 minutes Monday, said the goal of the bill is simply "to extend to Negro citizens the same rights and opportunities that white Americans take for granted."

"This bill cannot be attacked on its merits," he said. "Instead, bogeymen and hobgoblins have been raised to frighten well-meaning Americans."

Kuchel, speaking for an hour and 40 minutes after Humphrey, expressed hope the bill might even be strengthened in some respects.

they're due to be retired.

Others pat business and consumers on the back for their behavior. In most instances both avoided excesses of the kind that in the past have done an upturn in - such as too enthusiastic expansion, overbuilding of inventories, a rush to buy goods beyond personal capabilities to pay for them. Today's economic health, they hold, is due in large part to the moderation and caution with which almost everyone handled their affairs in the last 38 months.

Still others think that the bright performance of the immediate past is due in large part to an anticipation of the federal tax cut. Plans were made accordingly. And many of the predictions of future gains are based on the hope that the extra spending money will lead both consumers and business to put more into the economy, building a base for a notable advance.

Much of the first quarter's performance would bear this out. The more striking gains were in home building, based on consumer confidence of meeting future mortgage payments, and the 30s. That state's $2.5 million peach crop appeared lost and apple growers in western counties feared cold damage.

Much of south Georgia's early watermelon crop was damaged or wiped out by 28-degree cold but there is time for replanting and the early crop will be set back only a week or two.

The federal-state frost warning service in Florida reported no citrus damage and there was no damage reported from south Florida vegetable farms.

Although frost warnings included areas as far south as the Everglades, early morning temperatures in south Florida were in the 50s.

Temperatures below freezing were reported in north Florida. However, there are few crops in these areas this early in the season.

The spring freeze, coldest since 1955 in most sections, promised temperatures at least as cold as Sunday night in the northern portions of Dixie. Extreme southern portions were warned of colder temperatures than those of Sunday night.

This meant that crops in the southern portions which escaped Sunday night faced possible ruin. The last complete peach kill in the Southeast was in 1955.

A state-by-state rundown:

SOUTH CAROLINA - Peach growers feared that the freeze would kill what is left of the state's $20-million crop.

GEORGIA - Middle Georgia peaches, which were damaged less severely Sunday night than the northern third of the $12.5-million crop, face devastation.

ALABAMA - A. W. Todd, Agriculture Commissioner, predicted that Monday night temperatures may "eliminate any hope whatever for producing any fruit crops in central and north Alabama." He estimated the peach loss at $3 million.

TENNESSEE - Horticulturist B. S. Pickett at the University of Tennessee said the entire east Tennessee peach crop, about 100 acres, appears wiped out.

NORTH CAROLINA - An apparent total loss was reported in Montgomery County, heart of the state's $2.7 - million peach crop.

Clyde Auman of West End, director of the North Carolina Peach Growers Society, said about 10,000 acres appear to be a total loss.

VIRGINIA - Farmers said peaches and apples in the major producing area were not far enough along to be badly hurt.

FLORIDA - There were not enough crops in north Florida to feel Sunday night's chill, but warnings of frost deep into south Florida threatened crops there early today.

Late Entries for the Spa's Big Race

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — The latest addition to the ranks of certain starters in the $25,000 added Arkansas Derby Saturday arrived Monday at Oaklawn park.

Clifford Lussky's Geology was flown in from Gulfstream.

A field of 10 to 12 three-year-olds has begun shaping up for the 28th running of the mile and a furlong test.

Geology won the City of Miami Beach Handicap as a 2-year-old, and has finished second in three of his five efforts this year.

J. D. Branham's Goff's Gay also became a definite starter when his former owner Gene Goff of Fayetteville waived any objection. Under Arkansas racing regulations, Branham could not enter him in the derby without permission of the person paying the nomination fee.

Marion H. Van Berg's Polo Palm is still a doubtful starter for the same reason. Polo Palm's former owner has not yet given his consent for the colt to be entered.

Another arrival for the derby, F. P. Aime's Shillin A Day, is expected from New Orleans.

Others regarded as probable starters from among the 28 nominees are W. Hal Bishop's Floral Shop, Grace Creek Farm's Count Tarlo, J. Lee Bearden's Lee's Fury, Sam C. Brocato's Big Felly, E. A. Dust's Royal Shuch, C. O. Viar's Dancing Brave, Wilhoft Brothers Stable's Gordon W. and George M. Holsinger's Prince Davelle.

Rating the role of early favorite is Floral Shop, who won the Hot Springs Handicap Feb. 22 and finished first in the Rebel

Liston-Clay Fight Hearing Continues

By G. MILTON KELLY
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Edward Lassman, President of the American Boxing Association appears before the Senate antitrust and monopoly subcommittee today as the probe of the Clay-Liston championship fight draws to a close.

Lassman's appearance is an opportunity to solve a puzzle: what were his reasons for suggesting the association strip Cassius Clay of the heavyweight title and bar Sonny Liston from another crack at it? And why did he withdraw the suggestion?

The stated reason for the inquiry is to determine if the Clay-Liston fight points to a need to place professional boxing under tight federal policing.

Chairman Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., says the subcommittee already has heard enough of mysterious money deals and of possible underworld involvement in the staging of the bout so that "we've got the momentum" to pass legislation.

Sam Margolis, acknowledging a highly profitable friendship with Liston and an association with underworld figures Frank Carbo and Frank (Blinky) Palermo, swore Monday the fight "absolutely" was not fixed. He denied heatedly that he was "fronting" for Carbo and Palermo when he secretly obtained without paying a cent, one-half of Liston's stock in Intercontinental Promotions Inc., which had also secretly paid Clay $50,000 for the right to promote his next bout.

Robert Nilon, executive vice president of Intercontinental, whose brother Jack Nilon was Liston's unlisted manager, swore that even he didn't know that Liston had agreed to surrender half his purse for the bout to Jack Nilon, until this was disclosed in the hearings.

He insisted he saw nothing "incongruous" in the fact that no medical consultation was involved when Liston refused to answer the bell for the seventh round of the Feb. 25 fight, thereby losing the title to Clay.

Hart and S. Jerry Cohen, subcommittee counsel, suggested Liston seemed to have a lot of "aides" not publicly listed who were putting the bite heavily on his earnings. They noted that Liston had testified in 1960 that he could not read or write.

The Nilons have testified that the secret promotional deals were violations of World Boxing

Besselink Is Azalea Winner

By KEN ALYTA

WILMINGTON, N.C. (AP) — "I should be a great player from now on. I've got every shot there is. I have a good swing now and hit good drives, good iron shots and I'm putting well."

The speaker was Al Besselink, shortly after slipped home a one-stroke winner of the $20,000 Azalea Open golf tournament Monday. It was the first tour victory in almost seven years for the 39-year-old husky Merchantville, N.J., blond who returned to the tournament trail after three years as a Philadelphia area club pro.

A triple bogey seven on the next to last hole, where he put his tee shot out of bounds, almost cost him the tournament, which he had led since a second-round 65. But a great par four on the final hole saved him the $2,700 top money, and nosed out Lionel Hebert.

"This should give me confidence. Winning here could mean $25,000 for me," he added, referring to fringe benefits a circuit victory brings.

Besselink had rounds of 70-65-72-75 to finish six under par for four trips around the 6,744-yard Cape Fear Country Club course. His total matched the tournament high, turned in by three previous winners since the 1949 inaugural.

Playing 18 holes in Monday's weather was punishing. Shortly

Association rules. But they said the eagerness of states and cities for the prestige and profits involved in playing host to a championship fight make it unlikely that the association could do much about imposing meaningful sanctions against violators.

Hart said he did not plan to call either Liston or Clay as witnesses because he considers "the record is ample" to guide Congress.

Dark Smiles More This Season

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Bob Bolin joins the list of reasons Alvin Dark smiles more this spring.

The fireballing right-hander hurled six innings Monday as the Giants, as usual, whipped Cleveland. This time the score was 10-2 and marked the seventh triumph without defeat for Manager Dark's troops over the Indians.

Bolin gave up just one hit and better still he walked only three to indicate his control has improved.

The day before, Bob Shaw had given a solid pitching performance. And rookies Jim Hart and Jesus Alou continued to display the potential of major league performers.

Pitching and the play of those two rookies are the big unanswered questions for San Francisco.

Hart, counted on as the third baseman, walloped his first homer as a Giant in Monday's game. His first-inning clout against Gordon Seyfried scored Willie Mays and Willie McCovey after dawn a cold wave struck town and temperatures plunged to 37 degrees when play began. The wind howled all day at from 25 to 39 miles an hour.

"When I saw the conditions, I realized that nobody could beat par out there and decided to play for pars, treating each hole individually," Besselink related.

ahead of him.
He finished the day with a .345 average for the spring and Alou ran his consecutive-game hitting streak to an even dozen with a single. His one-for-four performance left his average at a .flat .395.

Bolin gave up a first-inning run to the Indians at Phoenix Municipal Stadium and he truly gave it. Dick Howser drew a walk, stole second, was wild pitched to third and scored on Leon Wagner's sacrifice.

The only hit off Bolin was John Romano's clean single to center in the second.

NEW BURIAL PROTECTION PLAN By Oakcrest Funeral Home & Burial Association

Many times we have been asked: "Why can't we increase our Burial Protection?" — NOW, this can be done.

This is a Family Burial Plan. By this you can protect each member of your family, from one to 75 years of age, for an additional amount of from $200.00 to $1,000. Double indemnity available on ages from 10 to 60 at a very low cost. The only requirement is that all are in good health and free from chronic, infectious or contagious diseases.

This is a CASH policy, good ANYWHERE.

You will note by the following table that the COST is LOW, and in line with Burial Association rates.
